

NYC's best barbershops

Guys can get a cut and a shave the old-fashioned way at these mancentric salons.

Persons of Interest Owner and former Daily Show producer Steve Marks has certainly turned back the clock in decorating this pair of retro Brooklyn barbershops, from the faded pastoral picture gracing the wood-paneled back wall to the Eisenhower-era seats. Sip gratis old-fashioned fizzy sodas and Brooklyn Lagers before opting for a simple buzz cut ($25), a mere cleanup ($20) or more complicated chop ($40). They also offer a nice close shave ($40) and beard trims ($15), although we suggest the combo platter ($75), a shave-and-a-haircut duo designed to help you keep a clean look. 299 Smith St between Sackett and Union Sts, Carroll Gardens, Brooklyn (718-858-5300) • 84 Havemeyer St at Metropolitan Ave, Williamsburg, Brooklyn (718-218-9100) • personsofinterestbklyn.com—David Fear
